

In this Issue

Education News across the World
AIMRI TIP
Ask the Expert

Education News across the World

UAE BASED INDIAN AUTISTIC TEEN ACHIEVES DREAMS WITH MEMORY

Nineteen-year-old Rohithparithi Ramakrishnan, An Indian autistic teenager based in the United Arab Emirates has an exceptional talent and gifted with a powerful memory. Showing signs of prodigious intellect from an early age, he can recollect family events with year, date, guest list, their vehicles and colour. Born weighing about 1 kg, Ramakrishnan was kept in an incubator for months and underwent multiple surgeries. He was diagnosed as autistic before turning two years. Ramakrishnan has also won electronic keyboard competitions held by various groups and associations and, that too, in general category. He can reproduce any kind of music after hearing it twice or thrice. He remembers and chants more than 40 shlokas in Sanskrit from (Hindu religious text) Bhagavad Gita. Rohith has also participated in Special Olympics Mena Games 2018. Source: Khaleej Times

Education News across the World

UNICEF UNVEILS LATEST INNOVATION TO IMPROVE EDUCATION IN EMERGENCIES

UNICEF today announced the launch of a new generation of innovative multi-purpose tents which will provide a wide range of humanitarian support for children affected by conflict and disasters around the world. The new and improved High Performance Tents include multiple add-on features aimed at meeting the needs of children in emergencies worldwide and are the result of a two-year co-creation process with industry partners. Humanitarian multipurpose tents offer safe spaces for children fleeing from conflict or natural disaster. They can be used as schools, health clinics, nutrition facilities, distribution points and child-friendly spaces. Between 2013 and 2018, UNICEF procured on average 4,650 multipurpose tents per year at an annual average total cost of US$6.6 million. These tents provided support services to millions of emergency-affected children each year.. Source: UNICEF

AJK TO BECOME NEXT EDUCATIONAL HUB FOR THE NATION

Determined to ensure innovative and quality education to improve the quality of education in its institutions, Azad Jammu and Kashmir is set to bring an educational revolution. The AJK President said that five public sector universities were imparting modern education to students in the liberated territory, and focus has been laid on tailoring the academic syllabus as per demands of the ever evolving job market, so that after graduating, the students do not face any difficulty in finding relevant jobs. Sardar Masood Khan said his endeavor shall encourage public-private partnerships besides attracting local and foreign investors to work under a comprehensive plan to improve the standard of education, provide employment to the local people, and reduce the number of dropout students at all levels of education. Source: Bol Network

UAE MAKES $15M PLEDGE TO IMPROVE SUDAN EDUCATION SYSTEM

The UAE has announced AED55 million ($15 million) for school supplies that will support 400,000 students in Sudan. The monetary aid, provided by Abu Dhabi Fund for Development (ADFD) covers educational necessities, including classroom equipment, state news agency WAM reported. ADFD, in cooperation with the Sudanese government, supervised the delivery of the first shipment of school supplies that covers the needs of 10,000 students, it added. The school supplies support package falls within the framework of the AED11 billion ($3 billion) Saudi Arabia-UAE joint aid package aimed at supporting Sudan's economic and financial stability. As part of the package, Saudi Arabia and the UAE deposited a financial allocation of $500 million into the Central Bank of Sudan earlier this year to strengthen its financial position. The UAE and Saudi Arabia have also dispatched 540,000 tonnes of wheat worth $150 million to enhance food security in Sudan over a three-month period.. Source: Arabian Business

ASK THE EXPERT

What should i do when i feel like stuck in life? - Anonymous

Hi Anonymous,

The feeling of being stuck is quite common in all of us. It generally creeps in when you start to realize that things are not going the way you want them to. So, when you start to feel that you are stuck. Follow the ten steps mentioned below:

- 1.Go ahead and take that much deserved change: You usually feel stuck when you start feeling that nothing is going to change in your life. Whether it be your job, house, relationship, everyone wishes to be free and content in their life. Hence if you feel something is holding you back, brake the chains and go ahead for that much deserved change.
- 2.Don't Stress yourself, if you haven't figured out how to move ahead in life, because none among us have actually have. If you don't see something working out change the path, and try to figure out what went wrong, since it will help you grow eventually.
- 3.Clear off the negativity in your life and believe in yourself. Don't fret on what people will think or say about you or your choices since if you believe what you are doing is right, then don't look back.
- 4.Don't make your life miserable by overthinking on things, things happen for a reason so just go with the flow and enjoy what you have in hand.

Hope these tips will help you overcome that 'Stuck' feeling. All the best!

This specific corner has been introduced for those who seek advice on education and related matters. If you have a feel free to submit your questions to aimri@ariesgroup.ae